Residents of Bolingbrook describe their community, located 25 miles southwest of the Loop, as a vibrant place with a big city pulse and a small town heart.

Tree-lined streets and well-groomed lawns, open parks, peaceful neighborhoods and high quality schools make Bolingbrook a most desirable place to call home. The village's main streets feature wide, landscaped medians and flowering trees, which earned Bolingbrook the designation of "Tree City U.S.A.," by the National Arbor Day Foundation. The Park District offers more than 1,200 recreational programs.

Distance to Downtown Chicago

30 miles

Average Drive Times

32 minutes to Chicago Loop | 42 minutes to O'Hare Airport | 29 minutes to Midway Airport

Transportation

The Stevenson Expressway (I-55) has three interchanges in Bolingbrook and the North-South Tollway (I-355) ends there. The East-West Tollway (I-88) is north, and the Tri-State Tollway (I-294) is seven miles east. Drive time to the Loop is about 35 minutes.

Midway Airport is a 40-minute drive, while O'Hare Airport is a 35-minute drive. Commuters can catch the Burlington-Northern train in Lisle for a 45-minute ride into the Loop or take the train from Lemont for a 50-minute trip. The I-55 Flyer Express bus reaches Chicago in 75 minutes.

Schools

Most students attend Valley View Community Unit School District 365-U, which offers K-12 education in 16 different elementary, middle school or high school buildings. Some youngsters will be enrolled in Downers Grove, Naperville and Plainfield school districts.

Settled in 1956, Burr Ridge has grown steadily over the years. Burr Ridge still sports the wetlands, ponds and burr oak trees of its youth. What were once just large tracts of open farmland is now a thriving village of residential, commercial and industrial areas. This well-balanced mix of business and residential communities has allowed Burr Ridge to maintain one of the lowest tax rates in DuPage County. Some areas of Burr Ridge are zoned for horses.

Distance to Downtown Chicago

20 miles

Average Drive Times

20 minutes to Chicago Loop | 31 minutes to O'Hare Airport | 18 minutes to Midway Airport

Transportation

The Stevenson Expressway (I-55) and the Tri-State Tollway (I-294) intersect in the village. Drive time to the Loop is 30 minutes, Midway and O'Hare airports are 20 and 40 minutes away, respectively. Commuters catch the train in Hinsdale, and reach the Loop in 30 minutes. Bus routes to the Hinsdale station operate during rush hours.

Schools

Elementary School Districts 62, 107, 180 and 181 and High School Districts 86, (Hinsdale South and Hinsdale Central) and 204 (Lyons Township) serve the village.

Hospitals

The Good Samaritan Hospital, Hinsdale Hospital, LaGrange Memorial Hospital, and Suburban Hospital all serve the area.

CAROL STREAM

Jay Stream founded Carol Stream in 1959. Purchased originally as unincorporated farmland, and now with exceptional education, parks and infrastructure, Carol Stream is a lovely place to call home.

Distance to Downtown Chicago

34 miles

Average Drive Times

35 minutes to Chicago Loop | 25 minutes to O'Hare Airport | 35 minutes to Midway Airport

Transportation

North Avenue (IL-64) runs for 7 miles through the lower southern section of Carol Stream which connects with the Veterans Memorial Tollway S (I-355 N). Commuters can catch the Metra for easy access to Chicago through the Milwaukee District West train at the Schaumburg Station or the Union Pacific West train at the Wheaton station. Travel time for both is about an hour.

Schools

Education in Carol Stream is served by the Benjamin School District 25, CCSD 93, the Elgin Area School District U46 and Wheaton School District 200. Throughout the surrounding area, Carol Stream has seven elementary schools, one middle school, and four high schools along with fourteen Colleges that serve Northeastern Illinois.

Recreation

Carol Stream has a wide selection of parks and recreational activities from which to choose, with 36 parks and playgrounds, an outdoor water park, two recreational centers and a mini-golf course. Also, Kids World is a 16,000 square foot play complex that attracts kids of all ages.

Hospitals

Located within the Carol Stream community is a Professional Medical Park that offers a total of 98 doctors and 10 dentists. For other needs, there are two hospitals found within five miles of the Village as well as another five hospitals within DuPage County.

CLARENDON HILLS

Planned in part by Frederick Olmsted, the designer of New York's Central Park, Clarendon Hills is a "picture book small-town community." Not quite two square miles in size, the village projects a distinct charm and style. Residents and local organizations take an active role in maintaining the beauty of their community. The Lions Club sponsors events with gardening clubs who maintain the Main Street village triangle.

Distance to Downtown Chicago

22 miles

Average Drive Times

40 minutes to Chicago Loop | 36 minutes to O'Hare Airport | 32 minutes to Midway Airport

Transportation

Express rail service to the Loop is available from the local station via the Burlington Northern railroad. Drivers will find I-88, I-294 and I-55 equally convenient. Local bus service is available.

Shopping

Major shopping is available at the nearby Oak Brook Center, an exclusive outdoor mall featuring 160 stores including Nordstrom, Lord & Taylor, Neiman Marcus, Macy's and Sears. Yorktown Mall, in nearby Lombard, features 130 stores, anchored by Carson Pirie Scott. Shopping is enhanced by a number of lovely local boutiques and specialty stores.

Schools

District 181 houses two elementary schools. A Catholic grade school and a Montessori pre-school provide local alternatives. High school students generally attend Hinsdale Central High School in District 86, which is known for excellence in both academics and athletics. Complete day care facilities also serve the area.

Recreation

Four parks, two man-made lakes, a golf course, tennis courts and several playgrounds are maintained within the village. A number of fun events take place in summer including Daisy Days, two-days of fun in the sun, the Daisy Dash, a 5K Run, and "Dancin' in the Street", a summer concert series with music and food.

DOWNERS GROVE

Downers Grove traces its name to Pierce Downer who settled the area on 150 acres in 1832. The arrival of the railroad in 1864 brought new opportunities and stimulated growth. The original business and residential district steadily expanded in all directions. The mid-1960s to the mid-1980s saw a boom period in which the population doubled. Abundant trees, parks and greenery earned Downers Grove the nickname, “Village of Trees.” Many homes in the area enjoy scenic wooded settings.

Distance to Downtown

23 miles

Average Drive Times

30 minutes to Chicago Loop | 29 minutes to O’Hare Airport | 30 minutes to Midway Airport

Transportation

Commuters enjoy Metra rail service to the Chicago Loop in 30 minutes from in-town or close-by stations. Drivers enjoy easy connections to the East-West (I-88) Tollway, the North-South (I-355) Tollway and the Stevenson (I-55) Expressway.

Shopping

Many fine shopping alternatives are close by for residents. The Yorktown Mall in neighboring Lombard and the fashionable Oak Brook Center are major regional malls off I-88. Aurora’s Fox Valley Shopping Center is a popular alternative. In addition, the village has an extensive shopping district of its own.

Schools

Students generally attend elementary schools in District 58 or 69. Two fine high schools, Downers Grove North and Downers Grove South (District 99), rank among the top in Illinois for quality facilities, programs and instruction. A total of ten elementary and two junior high schools serve the community, in addition to several noteworthy private and parochial schools.

Recreation

Downers Grove has 42 park sites totaling 500 acres. More than 500 programs are coordinated by the Park District and are devoted to sports, recreation, leisure and learning, including fully-developed programs for people with disabilities. A private 12-court racquetball club, two members only swimming pools and nearby Downers Grove Golf Club are among the recreational attractions.

Elmhurst offers the advantages of suburban living with a metropolitan atmosphere. In 2003, Chicago Magazine ranked the community #1 of out 192 Chicago suburbs. Stately trees line the parkways and frame a variety of well-built homes. The community is well-established, has great respect for its historical district and harbors plans for future development.

Distance to Downtown Chicago

18 miles

Average Drive Times

25 minutes to Chicago Loop | 20 minutes to O'Hare Airport | 30 minutes to Midway Airport

Transportation

Elmhurst is conveniently close to major tollways and expressways. Average commute time to the Loop is just over 30 minutes by express train.

Shopping

Downtown Elmhurst is an outstanding place to shop. From boutiques to major appliances and from jewelry to hobbies, Elmhurst has it all. Oak Brook, Yorktown and Hillside Plaza shopping centers are just minutes away.

Schools

Elmhurst is home to seven elementary and three junior high schools. York High School is known by the state as "representative of excellence" in education. If students wish to further their education, they needn't go far; Elmhurst College is a private and renowned liberal arts college located right in town.

Recreation

Between the local YMCA and the Park District, Elmhurst has a wide variety of special events scheduled year round. The recently restored York Theatre offers first run movies at affordable prices. Dining options include Italian, Greek, Mexican, Japanese and American food. More than twenty golf and country clubs are close by. The Lizzadro Museum of Lapidary Art features fine gems and gemstone carvings dating back to the Ming Dynasty. The Elmwood College Arboretum features more than 1,000 plants representing 270 species and varieties.

GLEN ELLYN

Originally settled in 1834, and first known as Babcock's Grove, Glen Ellyn was a resort town for turn of the century Chicago residents. Lake Ellyn, a 10-acre man-made lake, was the site of a popular hotel. Although the old hotel is no longer there, many charming homes from that era have survived gracefully. Vintage architecture, tree-lined streets, rolling terrain, and charming antique and specialty shops add to the community's New England flavor.

Distance to Downtown Chicago

25 miles

Average Drive Times

38 minutes to Chicago Loop | 37 minutes to O'Hare Airport | 40 minutes to Midway Airport

Transportation

The Union Pacific West Railroad commuter train stops in Glen Ellyn and takes 40 minutes to reach Chicago's Loop. A special commuter shuttle bus system connects residents to the train station in downtown Glen Ellyn. O'Hare Airport is just over a one half-hour drive. Glen Ellyn is close to the East-West Tollway (I-88), which is known as the "High Tech Corridor," and the North-Shore Toll Road, also known as I-355.

Shopping

Shops, restaurants, boutiques and antique shops are found in the downtown area. Danada East, Danada West, Rice Lake and Wheaton Town Square are all in adjacent Wheaton.

Schools

Glen Ellyn is served by elementary school Districts 41 and 89, and high school District 87. The village has eight elementary schools, two junior high schools, two high schools and two Catholic grade schools which consistently rank among the finest in the nation. The College of DuPage offers a wide curriculum. The DuPage Area Vocational Education Association for high school students is also located nearby.

Recreation

The Glen Ellyn Park District oversees 26 parks as well as the Village Links - a 27-hole championship golf course. Lake Ellyn provides scenic recreation including ice skating, picnic areas, playgrounds, and special events. The YMCA and the private Glen Oak Country Club, as well as two indoor ice rinks are also located in Glen Ellyn. Tennis and racquetball courts are nearby.

Founded in 1873, historic Hinsdale has been one of the Western Suburb's most prestigious communities. Gently rolling lawns and quiet streets are bordered by oak, maple and elm trees. Downtown Hinsdale is a charming destination that offers fashionable boutiques and plentiful dining options that range from casual to upscale. Municipal and recreational facilities provide a high standard of services.

Distance to Downtown Chicago

21 miles

Average Drive Times

31 minutes to Chicago Loop | 30 minutes to O'Hare Airport | 26 minutes to Midway Airport

Transportation

Commuters have a 22-minute ride to the Chicago Loop via RTA Metra trains from the main Hinsdale station. Drivers enjoy close proximity to most major arteries via the Tri-State Tollway.

Shopping

In addition to several local plazas and the central business district of charming shops and small businesses, Hinsdale residents are close to the upscale Oak Brook Center.

Schools

Hinsdale schools are acclaimed for their academic and athletic excellence. Hinsdale Central and Hinsdale South High Schools are both noted for high ACT scores. Hinsdale Central's foreign language program attracted the attention of the U.S. Department of Education as a prospective national model program. A middle school and five public elementary schools serve the village in addition to several parochial and private options. St. Isaac Jogues elementary school has been nationally recognized.

Recreation

The village is home to 18 parks on over 120 acres, including 14 tennis courts, a swimming pool and five playgrounds. Cross-country skiing, swimming, archery and horseback riding are among the offerings. Also in the vicinity are six golf and country clubs, a Community House that coordinates fine arts programs, the old Graue Mill Museum and the Hinsdale Historical Society. Uniquely Thursdays is Hinsdale's weekly summer concert series and there's also an annual Christmas Walk.

Early settlers to Lisle were attracted by the prime timber, agricultural land and optimum water resources available. In 1850 Lisle Township was created, but the Village of Lisle was not incorporated until 1956. Today Lisle is situated at the crossroads of two major interstates in the heart of DuPage County's High Tech Corridor. The town offers an ideal setting for residents, businesses and visitors alike.

Distance to Downtown Chicago

27 miles

Average Drive Times

35 minutes to Chicago Loop | 34 minutes to O'Hare Airport | 35 minutes to Midway Airport

Transportation

Metra train to Chicago

Shopping

The downtown business area is undergoing a revitalization program. There are a variety of businesses including retail shops and professional offices.

Schools

Lisle is served by two public school districts, Community Unit School District 202 and Naperville 203. Both districts were recognized nationally for providing quality education at a reasonable cost to taxpayers and for a high level of academic achievement. Two parochial schools are also located within the village. Benedictine University, with an enrollment of 2700 students, is located within the village and College of DuPage and North Central Colleges are located nearby.

Recreation

The park district maintains a community fitness center, an aquatic park and golf course in addition to the many park facilities found in the area. They also have a preschool program.

Hospitals

There are three major hospitals in the immediate vicinity: Good Samaritan, Edwards and Hinsdale Hospitals all provide quality medical care.

The village was named for Josiah P. Lombard, the largest landowner in 1869. Lombard is now known as the “Lilac Village” and, in its honor, an internationally famous Lilac Festival is held each spring that attracts thousands of sightseers.

Distance to Downtown Chicago

22 miles

Average Drive Times

33 minutes to Chicago Loop | 31 minutes to O’Hare Airport | 35 minutes to Midway Airport

Transportation

Lombard is centrally located close to all major highways and expressways including I-355, I-88, Tri-state Tollway (I-294), and the Eisenhower Expressway (I-290). Rail service to the Loop is available via Union Pacific West train line.

Shopping

Lombard is the home of Yorktown Mall, an indoor shopping center with over 100 stores. Local businesses within the village offer a wide variety of goods and services. In addition, Oak Brook Center and Woodfield Mall are nearby.

Schools

The two districts that serve the community both enjoy reputations for academic excellence. District 44 maintains seven elementary schools and one middle school; District 45 has three elementary schools serving the community. Glenbard East in District 87 offers foreign language and computer education enhancements to its academic programs.

Recreation

The Lombard Park District has over 450 acres of land designed for playgrounds, bike paths, and athletic fields, as well as numerous ponds and lagoons. Lilacia Park is an 8.5 acre horticultural showcase. The Lombard Park District sponsors many recreational programs that spark interest in both children and adults.

NAPERVILLE

As the oldest town in DuPage County, Naperville was the center of rural DuPage County life for over a century. In fact, it falls in DuPage and Will Counties. By the 1970s, it had become the fastest growing city with a population that tripled in two decades. At the heart of today's I-88 'High Tech Corridor,' the Naperville area is home to many modern research and development facilities. A 50-block area of old Naperville, comprised of some 650 vintage homes, has been designated a National Historic Landmark District. The central business district has been restored to reflect the town's pioneer heritage, and there are museums where historical exhibits showcase authentic replicas of 19th-century homes and buildings.

Distance to Downtown Chicago

31 miles

Average Drive Times

45 minutes to Chicago Loop | 25 minutes to O'Hare Airport | 60 minutes to Midway Airport

Transportation

RTA Metra provides regular express service to the Loop from two stations. Bus service is available to both stations. Resident drivers are only minutes from I-88 and easily accessible to I-55 to the south.

Shopping

Naperville's central business district is home to many charming shops and cafes, supplemented by a number of local plazas and shopping centers. Major regional malls include Fox Valley, Yorktown and Oak Brook Center.

Schools

Seventeen grade schools (Districts 203 and 204), six junior and three senior high schools serve the community. Pre-schools, parochial grade schools and a number of acclaimed colleges are also available in town or in neighboring suburbs.

Recreation

Naperville's 1,200-acre Park District has won the Sports Foundation gold medal for outstanding recreational programs and facilities. Many parks, jogging trails, picnic areas, beaches, forest preserves, and a beautiful tree sanctuary are also enjoyed here. Several public and private golf courses are found within the area. Created exclusively through local volunteer contributions, the Riverwalk is a unique park overlooking the DuPage River.

Founded by famed sportsman and captain of industry Paul Butler, Oak Brook has evolved into a thriving, sophisticated community. A modern commercial and retail base is complemented by abundant woodlands, ponds, streams, gently rolling hills and stately executive homes on tree-lined streets.

Distance to Downtown Chicago

19 miles

Average Drive Times

28 minutes to Chicago Loop | 27 minutes to O'Hare Airport | 29 minutes to Midway Airport

Transportation

Express rail service connects with the Chicago Loop in about 22 minutes from the nearby Hinsdale station. From Elmhurst, ride-time to the Northwestern Station is also under one half-hour. Three major arteries pass through or near Oak Brook: the Eisenhower Expressway (I-290) and the Tri-State (I-294) and East-West (I-88) Tollways.

Shopping

Numerous upscale department stores including Neiman Marcus, Macy's and Nordstrom, as well as a wide variety of smaller high quality stores, have contributed to Oak Brook Center's growing reputation as Chicagoland's premiere shopping site.

Schools

Eight school districts serve the Oak Brook community. Most elementary students attend schools in District 53, where scores are consistently above the 90th percentile in national testing. Area high schools include Hinsdale Central (District 86), Downers Grove North (District 99) and York High School in Elmhurst (District 205).

Recreation

An avid polo player, Paul Butler was responsible for the polo field, which is home to the Butler National Polo Tournament. The village-owned Oak Brook Golf Club, sprawling 1800 acre Fullersburg Park, and the Oak Brook Sports Core with tennis and soccer facilities are popular recreational options for residents. The Park District coordinates numerous seasonal activities for the enjoyment of all age groups.

VILLA PARK

Villa Park is known to residents as the garden village. Playgrounds, garden plots and lagoons can be found in the village's 16 parks. A nine-hole golf course features a seven-acre pond. The community has access to the Illinois Prairie Path, a 45-mile linear bike trail. An active Chamber of Commerce co-sponsors special events with other community organizations such as the Villa Park Historical Society. Some of the community events include Holidays in the Air, the Festival of Lights Parade, a Fourth of July celebration and Oktoberfest.

Distance to Downtown Chicago

20 miles

Average Drive Times

31 minutes to Chicago Loop | 27 minutes to O'Hare Airport | 34 minutes to Midway Airport

Transportation

Villa Park is two miles from the I-290 Expressway and the Tri-State Tollway (I-294), and one mile south of the East-West Tollway (I-88). The Loop and Midway Airport are both a 30-minute drive. O'Hare Airport is 20 minutes away. Union Pacific Railroad trains serve Villa Park.

Schools

Elementary Districts 45 and 48 serve the community's children. The village has an after-school sports program at three elementary schools and other village facilities. Students continue their education by attending Willowbrook High School in District 88.

Recreation

Villa Park's Recreation Division offers more than 600 programs. The village owns two community centers, two swimming pools, eight tennis courts, two sled hills, three fishing lagoons and a golf course.

Founded by Daniel Warren and his family in 1834, the town quickly grew when two mills were erected and a plank road was constructed to connect the town with Naperville and Winfield. The 1980s sparked a growth from the Chicagoland area. Since then, Warrenville continues to prosper with a rich history and a loving community.

Distance to Downtown Chicago

32 miles

Average Drive Times

40 minutes to Chicago Loop | 30 minutes to O'Hare Airport | 42 minutes to Midway Airport

Transportation

Warrenville is just minutes from the Ronald Reagan Memorial Highway (I-88 W) which then connects with the Veterans Memorial Tollway South (I-355 S). Commuters have easy access to downtown Chicago through the Union Pacific West train from the Winfield stop or the Burlington-North train in Naperville for an hour long train ride.

Shopping

Nearby Wheaton has a large central business district that offers many charming shops and cafés as well as Danada West, Danada East, Rice Lake and Wheaton Town Square.

Schools

Bower Elementary School, Clifford Johnson School, Hubble Middle School and Wheaton Warrenville South High School are the elementary, middle and high schools that serve the village. Four Winds Waldorf School is a private PreK-8 school that also serves the Warrenville area.

Recreation

Warrenville is home to 10,000 acres of open space and contains approximately 30 miles of off-road bike paths. With such large open areas, opportunities to enjoy outdoor activities such as fishing, canoeing, tubing, and camping are plentiful. A District Recreational Facility and a Lifetime Fitness facility are options in Warrenville. DuPage Forest Preserve, Silver Lake campgrounds and trails are also located in Warrenville.

Beginning as a Village due to the trains that ran through the area, West Chicago still has the lively feel of a mini city while still having a quiet and quaint atmosphere. With the great educational facilities and numerous recreational opportunities, it would be hard to not want to call West Chicago home.

Distance to Downtown Chicago

38 miles

Average Drive Times

50 minutes to Chicago Loop | 30 minutes to O'Hare Airport | 50 minutes to Midway Airport

Transportation

To gain easy access out of West Chicago, North Avenue (IL-64) runs through the Northern section, while W. Roosevelt Rd (IL-38) is located in the southern portion of the Village.

West Chicago is connected to the City of Chicago by Metra, where commuters can easily travel to and from the city aboard the Union Pacific West line with the West Chicago Station located within the city.

Schools

The West Chicago educational system is served by the Elementary School District #33, Benjamin School District #25, St. Charles School District #303, the Community High School, the Wheaton Private Academy and College of DuPage.

Recreation

Twisting through West Chicago is the great Illinois Prairie Path, a 61-mile recreational nature train system that is available for all to use. West Chicago also offers a wide range of classes such as yoga, kickboxing, Karate, tumbling and more through The Fitness Station. Many parks and trails are also available.

Incorporated in 1926, Westmont has continued to grow dramatically as a result of booming industry in nearby communities. Affordable housing, quality schools and old-fashioned charm, draw corporate transferees and first-time homebuyers to this established community.

Distance to Downtown Chicago

23 miles

Average Drive Times

34 minutes to Chicago Loop | 33 minutes to O'Hare Airport | 29 minutes to Midway Airport

Transportation

Commuter trains reach downtown Chicago in 45 minutes; 28 minutes on the express train. Local bus service is available in and around the area. Westmont is just minutes from I-294, I-88, I-355, and I-55.

Shopping

Westmont has three strip malls; St. James Crossing, Fairview Plaza, and Westmont Shopping Plaza. Also located nearby is Oak Brook Center, an exclusive outdoor Mall featuring 160 stores, including Neiman Marcus, Nordstrom, Sears and Macy's.

Schools

Most school-aged children attend classes in District 201. High School students attend Westmont High School, Hinsdale Central, or Downers Grove High Schools.

Recreation

The Westmont Park District maintains 65 acres of land incorporating fifteen parks, nine playgrounds, twelve playing fields and a community center.

WHEATON

Founded in 1838 by the Wheaton brothers, the village was incorporated in 1890. In 1867, the DuPage County seat was moved to Wheaton. The prairie homes of the Wheaton brothers still stand today.

Distance to Downtown Chicago

26 miles

Average Drive Times

42 minutes to Chicago Loop | 40 minutes to O'Hare Airport | 43 minutes to Midway Airport

Transportation

Rail service to the Loop is available via Union Pacific West train line, with two local train stops. Adjacent to East-West Interstate 88 and North-South Interstate 355, Wheaton provides easy access to any location in the Chicago metropolitan area.

Shopping

There are many fine shopping areas in close proximity to Wheaton such as Yorktown, Fox Valley and Stratford Square shopping centers. In addition, there are boutique shops in downtown Wheaton.

Schools

Wheaton School District 200 comprises several elementary schools. Students either go on to Edison Middle School or Hubble Middle School then on to Wheaton North High School or Wheaton Warrenville South High School. There are also several private schools and a Catholic high school.

Recreation

The Wheaton Park District operates recreational facilities in 50 parks on more than 800 acres including the Rice Pool & Water Park and a community center. There are many recreational programs and a variety of tennis courts, soccer fields, picnic areas and baseball diamonds.

Arrowhead Golf Club, owned and operated by the Wheaton Park District and open to the public, has 27 holes and was recently redesigned and renovated. It includes a new two-story club house with banquet facilities, a year-round fine dining restaurant and a sports bar.

Hospitals

Central DuPage Hospital is one town away in Winfield.

Originally the Ridgemoor Homeowners Association, the village of Willowbrook, whose name is aptly taken from its scenery, was incorporated in 1960.

Distance to Downtown Chicago

22 miles

Average Drive Times

28 minutes to Chicago Loop | 24 minutes to O'Hare Airport | 25 minutes to Midway Airport

Transportation

Willowbrook is conveniently located close to Interstates I-55, I-290 and I- 355, and Route 83 is a main throughway. It is 25 minutes to Midway Airport.

Recreation

The Willowbrook Parks and Recreation Department is pleased to offer residents 10 park sites on more than 56 acres. A seasonal Fun Guide detailing all Willowbrook activities is mailed to residents three times per year.

Hospitals

Adventist Hinsdale Hospital in Hinsdale and Advocate Good Samaritan Hospital in Downers Grove are nearby.

WINFIELD

With the many cultural activities, community groups, and places to worship, Winfield is a great place to live that offers something for everyone. Originally a hidden gem behind the neighboring towns of West Chicago, Wheaton, Warrenville and Naperville, Winfield experienced enormous suburban growth after 1960 when the toll roads were created. Now, Winfield is a magnificent Village that has an energetic community, known for its lively business district and quiet neighborhoods.

Distance to Downtown Chicago

29 miles

Average Drive Times

45 minutes to Chicago Loop | 35 minutes to O'Hare Airport | 50 minutes to Midway Airport

Transportation

Transportation is convenient with easy access to the major expressways including the Ronald Reagan Memorial Tollway (I-88) and the Veteran's Memorial Tollway (I-355). The Metra is very easily accessible for commuters in Winfield as there is a Winfield stop on the Union Pacific West train which then takes about an hour to reach downtown Chicago.

Schools

Students from the Winfield community attending public schools are enrolled in Districts 33, 34, 94 and 200.

Recreation

The Winfield Park District serves an almost five square mile area in west central DuPage County. The park facilities include various sport fields and courts, numerous hiking areas and a picnic area.

Hospitals

The Central DuPage Hospital is located in the Village of Winfield, with many surrounding health facilities such as Good Samaritan Hospital in Downers Grove, Glen Oaks Hospital in Glendale Heights, Edward Hospital in Naperville and Marianjoy Rehabilitation Center in Wheaton.

Careful planning by village administration has maintained a peaceful small-town environment in Woodridge, despite the recent rapid growth of its business sector. A combination of quality, affordable housing, convenience to Chicago and DuPage County's "High Tech Corridor" and generous open living space attracts an increasing number of homebuyers to the area.

Distance to Downtown Chicago

30 miles

Average Drive Times

35 minutes to Chicago Loop | 39 minutes to O'Hare Airport | 31 minutes to Midway Airport

Transportation

Metra commuters use nearby Downers Grove and Lisle stations to reach the Loop. Bus service to both stations is available. The North-South Tollway (I-355) passes right through the village, while I-88 and I-55 are within a short drive to the north and south respectively.

Schools
