

Jennifer Mills Klatt

It is our great privilege to welcome you as a member of the inaugural class of the Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices KoenigRubloff Hall of Fame.

Our Hall of Fame is a prestigious honor conferred upon real estate professionals in our company who have consistently achieved the highest levels of production over many years. This distinction is bestowed upon you in acknowledgement of your exemplary career of outstanding real estate sales accomplishments. Your unwavering dedication to providing a superior level of service to your clients represents a never-ending pursuit to helping others achieve the American Dream. Your hard work, perseverance, teamwork and sales accomplishments are an inspiration to those around you.

Our profession allows the best and brightest to earn any level of success they aspire to attain. You have set yourself apart from the others by surpassing an elite threshold of production within the past ten years. For that we recognize your legacy of exceptional performance in our company history. We thank you for your contributions to our success and for your efforts to elevate the real estate industry.

Congratulations!
